“ *Jimmy and Alvin & Families:
Mom and I send our condolences to you and all the family. Aunt Amanda will be greatly missed. The Bible says for the Christian, "to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord" (II Cor. 5:7), and "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints" (Psalms 116:15). We know that she is in a wonderfully safe and happy place now with the Lord and her loved ones, and we have the hope of one day joining them never to be separated again. Our prayers and thoughts are with you.*

“ Our condolences to the Axton family on the passing of Amanda. She has been a great neighbor to our family for my entire life. I have fond memories of trick-or-treating at her house as a child and receiving full-sized Three Musketeers bars. A tradition she continued with my own children. We were always sure to make her house our last stop because we knew we would be there talking for a good long time. She was always a joy to talk to and as sharp as a tack. So sorry for your loss.
