CANDIDA KINGERY REDMAN
MT. VERNON, INDIANA

Candida Lynette (Williams) Kingery-Redman, 53, born August 20, 1971 in Glasgow Kentucky, entered the arms of her Heavenly Father, Friday, August 15, 2025, as her loving husband Trent Redman stood at her side.

She is survived by her loving husband: Trent Redman; children: Allie Grammer, Bailey Redman, Sadie Redman and grandchildren, Landon and Emma Grammer. Other survivors include her mother: Loretta Foster; sister: Beth Rogers and brother: James K. Black; nieces and nephews Miranda Hurt, Lauren Thompson, Dylan Ford, Brittany Ford along with several great nieces and nephews. Also, lifelong best friend: Missy Davis. Candida was also a dog mom to Teagan Jo and Barkley Paul.

She was preceded in death by her 1st husband of 20 years: George (Pete) Kingery; beautiful daughter: Brianna Faith Kingery; sister: Susan Ford; father: Rex Foster and her grandmother: Elizabeth Pruitt Jackson.

Candida was a proud and loving mother to her children. Her lively spirit touched so many and she had an array of hobbies she enjoyed, such as helping others, crocheting and going on cruises. In addition, she was known for her custom jewelry. She was loved by anyone who had the privilege of a conversation with her. She was the embodiment of kindness and was always fighting for the underdog. Her family treasured her incredible southern cooking, always made with love.

Candida and her family want to extend an extra-special thank you to Dr. Katherine Lee-Kalsch, Dr. Joseph Lee and Harmony Hospice for exceptional care and friendship during a difficult journey.

As per Candida's request, there will be no funeral services.
