

Charles Addison Dyer Sr.

October 26, 1928 - October 5, 2021

CHARLES A. DYER, SR.
MT. VERNON, INDIANA

Charles Addison Dyer, Sr., 92, of Mt. Vernon, Indiana born to Henry and Mayme (Harwood) Dyer on October 26, 1928, in Aliquippa, Pennsylvania, passed away Tuesday, October 5, 2021 at Mt. Vernon Nursing and Rehab in Mt. Vernon, Indiana.

He graduated from Hopewell High School in Aliquippa, Pennsylvania and was an accomplished baseball player and avid hunter. He was a corporal in Company "C" 3d Infantry serving in the United States Army from 1947 to 1949. He was a US Honor Guard, President of the Coraopolis Beagle Club for 3 years and was a member of St. Frances Cabrini Church.

Surviving are his wife of 71 years whom he married on September 2, 1950: Dorothy Audrey (DuChene) Dyer; sons: Charles Addison Dyer, Jr. (Kathy) of Mt. Vernon, Indiana and Thomas Earl Dyer (Molly) of Dublin, Ohio; daughter: Janet Marie Wilson of Mt. Vernon, Indiana; sister: Carolyn Cassida of St. Petersburg, Florida; grandchildren: Steven Kospender (Carolyn); Erin Kospender; Kristina Millay (Dr. Robert); Marcus Dyer (Dr. Amanda); Patrick Dyer; Kathryn Reed (Aaron); Emily Dyer and Margaret Dyer; great grandchildren: Faith Millay, Harrison & Decker Dyer.

Preceding him in death were his parents; daughter: Mary Dyer; brother: James Dyer.

There will be no funeral services with burial in Mountain Home National Cemetery in Johnson City, Tennessee at a later date.

Cemetery Details

Mountain Home National Cemetery

215 Heroes Drive
Mountain Home, TN 37684

Tribute Wall

“ Charles Addison Dyer Sr.

October 06, 2023 at 09:05 AM