Charles Lockwood Hempfling, 80, of Poseyville, Indiana, born to Charles John and Marcie (Lockwood) Hempfling on July 15, 1934, in Poseyville, Indiana, passed away Monday, June 22, 2015, at Select Specialty Hospital in Evansville, Indiana.

He graduated from Poseyville High School in 1952 and attended Indiana University where he played basketball as a walk-on freshman; then due to illness in the family he returned to Poseyville to manage the family business which was started in 1886. He enjoyed going to work and meeting people and was a member of St. Paul's United Methodist Church and the American Quarter Horse Association, breeding 3 world champions and he enjoyed traveling the states with his son to events.

Surviving are his wife of 61 years: Maxine Faye (Williams) Hempfling; son: Jeff (Nancy R.) Hempfling of New Harmony, Indiana; grandson: Charles Matthew Hempfling and a brother and sister in law: Keith and Karen Williams of Wadesville, Indiana.

Preceding him in death were his parents; maternal grandparents: Will and Blanche Lockwood and paternal grandparents: Simon and Ruth Hempfling.

Funeral services will be 11 a.m., Monday, June 29, 2015, at the Werry Funeral Home in Poseyville, Indiana with private burial in Poseyville Cemetery at a later date. Rev. Paul Huntsman officiating.

Visitation will be from 4–8 p.m., Sunday, June 28, 2015, at the funeral home and from 9 a.m. until service time Monday.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to: St. Paul's United Methodist Church, 46 S. Cale Street, Poseyville, Indiana 47633.
