Clifton Daniel "Dawg" Embrey, 46, of Wadesville, Indiana, born to Clifton E. and Mary Jo (Butler) Embrey on September 29, 1970, in Evansville, Indiana; heaven gained an extraordinary coach and he went on to play on the field of dreams Wednesday, March 1, 2017 surrounded by family, friends, and loved ones at Deaconess Hospital in Evansville, Indiana.

Danny was a 1989 graduate of North Posey High School. He participated in many sports and lettered in baseball, basketball, football, and Track & Field. doing the things he loved most. Hobbies included but were not limited to: fantasy baseball, karaoke, darts, antiquing, shoe collecting, jeeping, float trips, softball, whiffle ball, golf scrambles, and spending time with loved ones. “ I played a lot of competitive softball with the North Posey Men's Varsity Club team and specifically with Cliffy Embrey, Danny Embrey's dad and a very good athlete.

Danny was a little boy then but there he was with his dad at almost every league & tournament game 🌞ALL SUMMER LONG🌞 & thats a lot of hot, dusty, steamy, early, late games...yet, there he was ALWAYS 'bright-eyed & bushy-tailed' & ready for a ⚾ballgame⚾

He always wore a 3-Happy smile 😊, was good-natured & enjoyed a good time.

He really never changed, demonstrating that wonderful good nature & fun personality each and every day to anyone & everyone lucky enough to be in his presence. 😊

⚾Along the way he coached many young 'boys' into becoming excellent baseball players, meanwhile growing into fine young 'MEN' along the way.⚾

He picked up his nickname 'Dawg' long ago in those early formative days.

Today, the legacy of ✨🐶 DAWG 🐶✨ is well-established & will never be forgotten 🌟🌟🌟

Danny 'Dawg' Embrey, gone to 🏹 Valhalla 🏹 home of all great 🏰 VIKINGS 🏰

🍷 We'll miss ya' Dawg 🙌
