“ Cinda, Just hearing of your Dad's passing - I am so very sorry. It seems like yesterday that your family made us feel welcome in our new Indiana home. He was a great neighbor and friend. I always enjoyed helping him check out books at the library - he will be missed.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Dale and Cinda for a number of years at Habitat. He was a kind and gentle man, enjoyable to be around. He was very much missed in recent years when health reasons made it unable for him to volunteer. We want to extend our sincere sympathy to Cinda and his whole family.

“ In my memories, Uncle Dale is always smiling. I am sad for your sorrow. This world has lost a rare and wonderful man. But our loss is his gain, as he is with his Savior.

When I was a little girl, we visited your family in Virginia, and Uncle Dale treated our family to dinner in a nice restaurant. I ordered fish - I think it was trout. It was served as a whole fish, with head and tail intact. I announced that I couldn't eat it. (Think "A Christmas Story", Chinese restaurant scene.) I felt as though it was staring at me. Uncle Dale placed a sugar packet over it's eye and said with a smile, "There! Now it can't see you. How's that?" It was delicious!
