“ Jan, I will never forget the day I had an earring caught and couldn't get it out of my ear. Ellis wasn't home and neither were you, however Dave was. I'm sure he thought I had lost my mind when I came running over to your house and demanded he get the earring out, now!!!!

I was in such a panic with my agoraphobia and claustrophobia that I could hardly speak but Dave calmly worked it out for me and said "that's what neighbors are for."

We are so sorry for your loss.
