“ I taught at South Terrace when Donna was secretary. She was always most helpful and had many jobs such as nurse and counselor.

I am sorry to read of her passing and pray for God's comfort and peace to all in her family.

“ So many great memories of Aunt Donna... from the epic hog roast back when I was just a kid and traveling to away North Posey football games with her and Uncle Doyle to watch Dennis/Darren play - and of course rushing the field with her (dragging me at first) following a thrilling post season win at home!!! And who can forget the countless times she and Uncle Doyle opened their home to the extended family on Christmas and New Year's eves? So many good times... :)

The sound of her sweet voice and laugh will forever be etched in my mind. I've missed her these past few years during her illness, but thankfully all the great memories of her live on...
