“ As a child, some of my fondest memories were of Grandma Ungetheim's holiday get togethers. The aunts, uncles, nieces and nephews played softball in the cow pasture. Cards and board games in winter. Uncle Earl and Aunt Dory were always favorites to play with. They acted like the kids. We laughed a lot. Winter family days Uncle Earl took the nieces and nephews to the movies. We saw Roy Rogers and Dale Evans, Gene Autry, And one of the favorites, Singing in the Rain. He was a neat, well-dressed, good looking and fun uncle. Thanks for the memories Uncle Earl. Rest In Peace!
