“ Dear Hyatts,

Thank you for all your support over the years. When my father passed away in my senior year of high school. I went to the Hyatt's home in Tatesville, Pennsylvania. My class mate and buddy Steve helped but Mrs. and Mr. Hyatt were most conciliatory and comforting. I remember, they knew it was tough and reached out, Mr. Hyatt with a hand on the shoulder and Mrs. Hyatt with a hug. They told me to be strong and of good courage because my family would need strength and courage to face the loss of my father. They were right.

On a lighter note, I remember Mrs. Hyatt giving me a ride home from band practice in 10th grade. She was driving her new corvette. Becky got the passenger's seat and I got the shelf behind the seats. The top was down and the air blurred my vision so I don't know how fast we were going but I'm pretty sure the car exceeded the speed limit. A memorable ride.

A memorable lady and family. My thoughts and prayers are with you tonight.

Respectfully yours,

Marshall "Wally" Ritchey
