“ To the Montgomery Family, and all Family and Friends: I extend my deepest

Sympathy and heartfelt warm wishes, that during this time of sorrow, that Our Lord God and Jesus, will wrap his loving arms, around all that so loved our Dear, Sweet Ethel.

I helped take care of Ethel the last 4 or so years of her life. She was a joy to be around, always made everyone laugh and smile..... a true testament of what growing old is all about, a true little firecracker. Everyone loved her and of course, spoiled her.

I am graced and Blessed, for the Honor of just knowing her, for her to have been in my life and being allowed to love her as my own "Grandma Ethel". I love you, Grandma Ethel, Thank you my little "Hot Dog!!!", God speed to heaven with your golden wings, have fun in Heaven, because I now you will. You will forever remain in my heart, memories and soul.

Love Forever and Ever, Tammy Harrington, R.N.

“ Ethel was a great neighbor in the country who tolerated my tractor radio blaring WJPS and also a great friend and neighbor to my folks...in the country and in town. Blessings and comfort to the girls as Heaven brings home one of it's own.
