“ My condolences to all the family! What a legacy Henry and Virginia have created with such a loving family and successful business! The video is a must see! I was fortunate to meet the Beuligman family through Joe when he started dating my sister Donna nearly 40 years ago! What a blessing that has been to our entire family when we all became one big family. We miss those who have gone before us..but thanks to our faith in God and Jesus dying for all our sins, we know we will all be united again one day for all eternity! Love and prayers to all of the family!

“ We are so sorry it is time to say goodbye to Henry Joe. Walter of course, has known him for years. I forget how many years I have known him and Virginia. A long time.

I will always remember how he loved the ball games. We saw him at the girl's basketball games mostly, and he enjoyed them so much. It makes me smile to remember.

May God grant you peace, faith, and strength to go on and keep the good memories.

In God's love, Walter and Sharon Broadhead

“ It has been a while sine I ran into him doing my grocery shopping at Hershe's on Saturdays. But men like this men, are a dying breed. They don't make ppl like they did in that generation. He will be truly missed, and don't be too sad, be so honored at Easter's from now on out you can remember that this amazing man was blessed to be chosen. By God. This was his temporary home, and he got to go to his perminant home and to so many reunited to await our time for God to Have Mercy On Us All. I was just thinking about him today and those pecans. And how many grocery grocery bags of them I picked clean. He will be greatly missed, and always remembered.

I've known Henry Joe almost my entire life, as I was classmates with his son Joe and knew the rest of the family fairly well.

Henry Joe and Virginia were like second parents to so many...always supporting, leading, or maybe just enjoying church, community, school, and family activities. They always welcomed you with a broad 'smile' and a friendly 'hello', never failing to make you feel 'special'...and you were, to them!!!

When I think of Henry Joe, I think of the 'Golden Rule', and the words: 'Live, Love, Laugh'.

Whether it be his faith, hope, and love in the Lord, his family, the community, or the environment he set an example for all to follow. His presence just made everything 'better'.

I shall miss my good friend Henry Joe, but in truth, his message and example will be with me always.

"Peace be with You and Your's, Henry"!!!
