“ Hello, my name is Olivia Martin. I'm 19 and I've been working at Mt. Vernon McDonalds, where Herman often frequented, for 3 years. Herman was a special man in my life and we had wonderful a friendship for all 3 years. I watched as he would walk Wanetta in everyday and set her down and go get their food. Their order was always the same and every time they came in I already had it punched in for them and fresh fries ready to go. Herman opened his heart to me and really touched my life in so many ways. He was the part of my day I always looked forward to. He was truly a wonderful man. Once he stopped coming in with Wanetta, I was troubled. I spent more and more time chatting with him after that in hope of keeping him good company. He told me his life story and how they fell in love. Their love was so true and beautiful. So inspiring. Herman also told me about his beautiful family and how proud he was of them. Toward the end of one of our last conversations he told me that his day was better that'd he'd seen me and gave me a kiss on the cheek. He then sat there for a second, smiled and said, "I've lived a good life." And I truly believe that he did. It saddens me that I will no longer be seeing him and getting his warm hugs. My prayers are with you and your family now and I hope that you all are doing well. I'm sorry to say I cannot make it to his viewing or funeral because I'm in college out of town and would not make it in time. Just thought I'd share my times with him and let you know that your father, grandfather, and great grandfather was a great man with a big heart that touched many people.
