“ I am very sorry for your loss. May precious memories bring smiles to your hearts in the days and years to come, and help ease your sorrow. "And I have hope toward God, which hope these men also look forward to, that there is going to be a resurrection..." (Acts 24:15) My prayers are with you that the resurrection hope will also comfort you.

“ Even tho I didn't know your father Dan, I have heard you talk about how great a father he was to you and your siblings and to raise a son like you I know he was a good man. Sorry I can't be with you as that is the day I will be doing my chemo but rest assured I will keep you and your family in my thoughts and prayers.

Billie Hill - November 26, 2013 at 04:30 PM

“ I'm so sorry about your Dad, the few times I was with him I could just tell the kind of man he was, kind and down to earth, just a really good man. My prayers will be with you during this difficult time. Dads like him are special, I know I had one too! Now they are both in heaven, pain free and smiling down on us, I'm sure!!

“ Kenny was a very hard worker and had a heart of gold! He was a member of the "old school" population. He seemed to know how to fix anything and always had a positive attitude. We will miss him!
