Ina Faye Little 79, of Wadesville, Indiana, passed away at home on April 26, 2022. She was born on July 1, 1942 in Evansville, Indiana to Mervill M. and Marjorie Helen (Simpson) Snively.

Ina had many fond memories of growing up at the Old Dam on the Wabash with her parents and sisters. She graduated from New Harmony High School in 1960 and married Wendell Little September 18th, of the same year. She was a talented seamstress who made dresses and clothes for her girls, from baby outfits to prom and wedding dresses, and quilts for her grandchildren. She enjoyed gardening and was a wonderful cook who passed along recipes to her daughters. She shared several hobbies with her husband. She carved incredible woodwork designs on the flintlock rifles that she and Wendell built together, and she made beautiful beaded bags and buckskin clothing to go along with them. Later on they enjoyed building a 1939 Ford hotrod together which she completed the interior. They enjoyed many years of cruise-ins and car shows in the car they called Ol' Orange. They loved traveling to the National Parks out west in their motorhome with their daughter Meghan. Ina also enjoyed genealogy and researched both sides of her family with help from cousins who shared her interest.

She is survived by her husband: Wendell Little, of Wadesville, Indiana; daughters: Shannon (Scott) Coney of Eddyville, Kentucky, Susie Little (Michael Shellooe) of Camden, Tennessee and Martha (John) Wilkinson of New Harmony, Indiana; sister: Helen Hardin of Greenfield, Indiana; grandchildren: Lindsey Rueger, Zachariah Collison, Nicholas Wilkinson and Delilah Presson; great-grandchildren: Denver and Zaavan Collison along with several nieces and nephews.
