“ *many good memories !
fun times wading in the "back water "
flooded road East of town.
My shoe came off and went floating away over the fields of water.
He thought that was so funny,
He laughed & laughed and teased me about it long after.
Growing old was never a thought at that time in our lives.!
He has left good memories for those who have loved him,
He has finished his niche and accomplished his earthly task.
Now may God grant him a safe lodging, and a Holy rest.*

“ Words, however kind, can't mend your heartache. It will be the little things that you will remember, the quiet moments, the smiles, the laughter. And although it may seem hard right now, it will be the memories of these little things that help to push away the pain and bring the smiles back again.
