“ I was deeply saddened when I heard of Jessie passing away. She was absolutely the very best neighbor I could ever have! I would cook extra sometimes and take her a plate, sometimes daily when she was feeling worse than usual. She was so overjoyed you would have thought I had given her a million dollars! She loved my no-bake cookies! My sympathies to her family, and especially Dennis Andrew's, who used to thank me all the time for checking on his mother every day. She will be dearly missed.

“ Aunt Jessie was such a beautiful lady. She always had a smile for everyone just like her picture shows. She hosted so many fun family events for the Hocking family and made me feel so welcome and loved. Her love and pride in her son, daughter-in-law and grandchildren was always evident. She will be missed by many but the love she showered on those who knew her will keep her spirit alive. Love and sympathy to all of her family. Sorry I will not be able to attend her service and celebration. Dana Hocking Hampton

“ My favorite memory of mama was watching a cardinals playoff game in her house and waving our rally towels!! She was always such a joy to be around!! She saved her money up to give all her grandchildren 1,000 dollars and I think that is super cool and shows the kind of woman she was. I'm blessed to have gotten to know her!
