In retirement, he was active in supporting and expanding his church, the local Masonic Lodge and was a regular at Harold's, The Red Wagon, Depot Diner, Mill Mart and the Carmi Coffee Shop. He went to Bob Wilson Drilling's noon time of fellowship and was known for sharing his Faith in Jesus with friends and young people.

“ Such a kind neighbor and good friend of my Dad, Raymon Kern. He was there on the day Dad died, on his tractor, as the deep snow was making it difficult for family to travel to our neighboring house; like a sentry on guard, around our home and family. Memories that make farmers special. Your family has always been special to me. Prayers for all of you at this time.

“ John has been in my life forever he loved to kid me every time he saw he that I cost him an ice cream cone as he bet Mattie Boren that I was not engaged or he would have known it. But, guess what ..I was engaged and he didn't know it, and lost the bet. He was a great man, don't remember ever not knowing him, I graduated from Poseyville in 1950 and spent many alumni banquets with him. Last one only he, Pete Turner, Carol Ann Tenbarg and Marilyn Cartwright older than our class which that night was only Bob wassmer and me. Last time I saw him.. He will be missed, sorry not able to come to funeral home, you all have my sympathy, but you are lucky as you had one of “the really good ones” for a dad! 🙏🙏🙏 . Vera Almon Johnson
