“ It was your goal to make people smile and you did it oh so well. You would get up on your box (literally) which was your mini stage. Deal your game. Take their money and still they would be smiling because you just had a way. I will cherish our chats, texts and Facebook posts always. You truly were one classy, sassy real lady Miss Katrina and for that I loved you. Now, you earned those wings, Fly High!! Until we meet again, God bless.

“ My sincere thoughts and sympathy are sent to Katrina's family. I was just wondering the other day why I hadn't heard from her for a very long time. I was shocked to see this obituary. Katrina was always upbeat, fun and funny. I've known her since I was 15 years old, when we ran around with friends in St. Wendel, she was one of the kindest caring individuals I knew. We reconnected on facebook several years ago and spent hours on the phone reliving our teen years and laughing and recalling the fun we had. May You Rest in Peace, Katrina.
