MARILYN JEAN SEIB
POSEYVILLE, INDIANA

Marilyn Jean Seib, 86, born January 14, 1938 to Herbert and Elizabeth (Schiff) Mahrenholz in Poseyville, Indiana; survived by her twin, Carolyn Jane (Thomas); died Saturday, May 18, 2024 at her home in Poseyville, Indiana. She graduated from Robb Township High School in 1956 and Lockyear Business College in 1957. She married the love of her life, Alfred Paul Seib, who preceded her in death, at St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church on October 12, 1957. They were blessed to raise three children: Mark (m. Sheryl Fuetterer), Debra (m. Kenneth Phillips), and Wayne (m. Linda Warren), who later gave them the joy of five grandchildren: Sarah (TJ) Martin and Andrea (Eric) Gentry; Michael Phillips; and Carl (Mary Gibbs) Seib and Matthew Seib. Great grandchildren include Ellie and Brynn Martin, Levi and Samuel Gentry, and Mitchell Seib.

Jean placed her family above all else. As a mom, she was known for helping with homework, Saturday trips to the beauty shop that were always followed by a stop at the drug store for fresh roasted peanuts, and never needing a meat thermometer because everything she cooked was undoubtedly well done. She made every grandchild feel as though they were the favorite and dedicated her time to them in many ways. On the farm, she put her accounting skills to use by keeping the books and her culinary skills to work by ensuring everyone was fed, even during the busiest of seasons. In addition to gardening, Jean loved to travel and enjoyed genealogy, researching over 10 generations. Friends and family all cherished her perfect cross stitches, as her talent adorned many walls. She was kind, patient, and smiled easily. The sparkle in her eyes revealed a charisma that made everyone a friend and a positive spirit that could brighten up any room. Jean knew how to make every person feel special, and she wouldn't take a seat until she thought everyone had everything they needed. She was exceptionally devoted to her husband, Alfred, who adored her.

Private family services will be held with burial in St. Francis Xavier Catholic Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to: St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church Cemetery Fund, PO Box 100, Poseyville, Indiana 47633.
