“ Even though I will not be physically with you for the visitation and service for Marvin, I will certainly be with your wonderful family in spirit and in prayer. One of God's special blessings in my life has been the strong bonding love that we share as brothers and sisters. Marvin was a brother who fostered family fun and fellowship! We fondly remember the activities with Marvin and Rosie's family: bonfires, fish fries, egg hunts, horseback rides, hay rides, homemade ice cream parties.....just to name a few! May God bless and comfort all of us as we grieve the loss of our precious Marvin. Love from Kelly & Ruthie(Heldt) Rehlander Tucson, Arizona

“ Heaven gained a great man. I remember Marvin's easy smile, his horses that he allowed us to ride, and the loyalty and love he had for his family. I had the privilege of sharing in family meals on many a Sunday with his family.
To all of the family, I am so sorry for you loss. You are in my prayers today, tomorrow and the days in the future. Love you all.
