“ Sorry for your loss. I was her pastor for 6 teardrop. She was a very sweet lady and I loved to her her sing. She let me drop noodles once , but only after much instruction. She hit me with a wooden spoon when I said the chicken salad needed salt! We had lots of laughs together. I know she will be missed. God Bless. Rev. Alvin McFadden pastor at Johnson UMC 2001-2007.

“ Mary was a very nice lady. She had beautiful blue eyes. She shared a funny story with me about being stopped for speeding on her way to Indianapolis. She will be missed by friends and family.

“ Condolences, Jim and Bennie on the passing of your mother. Your mother was always nice, and was the definition of a lady. She was beautiful and carried herself with pride. She will be missed.

“ Mary will be missed, she was the perfect definition of a lady, always had that beautiful smile, and I will forever remember her beautiful voice,,,Every Christmas, for many years, her rendition of OH HOLY NIGHT, was something that opened your heart to the meaning of Christmas., and gave you chills as her awesome voice rang out.. She has brought so much joy to so many, with her kindness, her smile and her voice....my life was made richer by knowing her. You can rest now Mary, and your beautiful voice, , body and mind can finally be at peace, My sympathy to all the family, you were lucky to have this beautiful woman for so many years, as we were, ...all of us that knew her.....May Gid Bless all of you at this difficult time,
