“ I was the minister at Poseyville Christian Church, Disciples of Christ, for nearly 14 years during which time, Mary Jane served as chair of the Worship committee, and along with Glenn, sang in the church choir.

I have many vivid memories of Mary Jane, but one which occurred at an annual church Halloween party is uniquely Mary Jane, a tribute to her gifts for having fun with her beloved church family, and her skills with creativity.

She arrived in such a clever and well-executed costume that no one recognized her, not even I. In spite of perusing her at close range, I could not determine who this strange but beautifully made up lady was. Imagine everyone's surprise when finally she made her true identity known!

Mary Jane's love for the Lord and for God's people was strong. The church was a highly important part of her and Glenn's life together. She was a devoted Elder. Always showed up for a Bible study or a Women's Group lesson or gathering.

She had high expectations of the minister, yet, on more than one occasion, she encouraged George and me to take a few days off, one time being when a favorite aunt of mine passed away in Michigan. She had a big heart and a strong faith.
