“ A few years ago, when Pam was in the hospital, we laughed, talked about God's goodness, praised God, sang a couple of her favorite church hymns and prayed together. It was a good time together and brought a smile to her face. My sincere and heartfelt sympathy to Pam's family, especially to her Mom, Barbara.

“ I'm sorry to hear of Pam's death. My mother and Barb were good friends, and Mom often prayed for Pam. I remember riding to North Posey on the same bus (driven by Gene Williams) as Pam. She was a kind soul and is now rejoicing with the Lord she loved. My sympathy goes out to the family. Sincerely, Shelley (Wade) Glover

“ I remember Pam bringing her younger brother Terry to our house before he could drive. I was only eight so I guess I've know her and the family a long time. She was a good older sister until her illnesses took over her life but even then I believe she loved the Lord and she is in heaven now with her Dad celebrating her new heavenly body. Rest in peace Pam.
