“ Trish was always the one with a funny story or making funny faces while she described her daily events. She could make the smallest thing entertaining. Our kids, Hunter and Maggie really loved her... especially every Halloween. She made them so much fun! Even our Iggy loved her. Trish had this pie phase when she made about 30 different pies for the kids. She made soups for everyone. Had hot tub parties for the ladies and made such a huge spread of food- and we only had about 5 ladies there. She went all out on whatever she did. Her love for her kids and grandkids and Bear was so huge. She sparkled when talking about them. When I think about her, I have to smile. So many stories and adventures. Her riding on the pegs of Hunter’s bike around the neighborhood while she went Trick or Treating with him and Maggs. Trish- you are loved and will be missed. But, we know you will be enjoying yourself and be with your family again.

The story about her seeing Bear and thinking he was “so Hot” was one of the best.

Sweet dreams Trish. God bless you.

“ There is no way that Tim and I can pick one or two special memories with Trish and Bear. We have so many to choose from! Loving, unique, giving, talented and wanting to share her talent and gifts with others! Every time I feel a warm rush of air flowing over the fields that she loved to scour for arrowheads, I will know that it is her, in all of her gorgeous uniqueness, just saying hi! We will meet again dear friend, and we will make even more special memories. Love you! Becky and Tim Reineke
