Patricia Kay Garrett Wiley, 83, departed this life on the 16 day of March 2020 at Premier Healthcare in New Harmony, Indiana, after an extremely long battle with Alzheimer's. She was born October 30, 1936 in Griffin, Indiana, to Harrison and Virgie (Haggard) Garrett.

When only 1 ½ years old, she lost her father to TB. Jack Racine became her stepfather when she was 6 years old. Pat attended Griffin School and graduated in 1954 as salutatorian of her class. She was a drum major, cheerleader and played girls' baseball. She then attended business school and eventually started working at New Harmony National Bank where she met James D. Wiley, the love of her life. They married February 9, 1958 and spent the next 60 years together. Even after she had to go to the nursing home, Jim faithfully visited her every day until he passed in October 2018.

Pat took care of the books for Wiley Construction, Wiley Trucking and the Wiley Farms. She loved to go on trips with Jim in his semi-truck. She also worked for Allyn Abstract Company as bookkeeper for 10 years. Pat loved her family history. She loved to host her family reunions. Pat was involved in many Church and community activities including boy and girl scouts. She was member of the New Harmony Christian Church, Tri-Kappa, and New Harmony Ministerial Association. She was one of the charter members of the New Harmony Food Pantry. She loved to serve other people and volunteered many hours at the New Harmony nursing home Pat enjoyed singing and playing music and was a member of the New Harmony Community Choir. She took care of her grandchildren while their mother's worked.

Pat was preceded in death by her parents, husband, brother, Gordon Garrett, sister, Joan Hunckler and a brother-in-law, Larry York.

Pat is survived by her children: Tracy (Rick) Burks, Tim (Leigh) Wiley and Todd (Angela) Wiley; grandchildren: Jennifer (Jason) Kolley, Shawn Burks, Anne Marie (Rusty) Seymour, Joshua Gish, Nathan Wiley, Nickolas Wiley and Jacob Wiley; great grandchildren: Hannah Kolley, Madison Gish and Peyton and Ryder Seymour; siblings: Virginia (Ric) Lloyd, Alan (Donna) Racine; sister-in-law: Marionette Blood and many nieces and nephews.

Due to the national crisis, services will be private at the Werry Funeral Home in New Harmony, Indiana.

A public memorial service will be at a later date.

Donations can be made to: New Harmony Food Pantry, PO Box 203, New Harmony, Indiana 47631.

Expressions of sympathy may be made to the family online at www.werryfuneralhomes.com.

“ *So sorry to hear this.
Pat was such a kind and caring soul.
She always asked how my mom was every time she saw me.
Prayers for God to wrap each of you with His peace and comfort now and always.*

“ For a good number of years Pat & I handled the Mother-daughter banquet at church. We had fun organizing ideas & decorating for it. I first recognized that her memory was failing when she completely forgot to help set up. It was so unlike her.

Also I will NEVER forget Jim's dedication to Pat. Every time I was at nursing home services there he was with her & holding her hand. What a lucky family to have these two as the patriarchs; loving Godly examples.

We are so sorry to learn of your family's recent loss. Pat was a lovely, kind lady. When we first moved to this area, she was very welcoming and friendly. For a number of years I volunteered as a ticket seller for "Under the Beams" and she called every year to reserve her season ticket. I always looked forward to taking the call and seeing her at the concerts. Our deepest condolences to all of you.
