“ Randy was always such a cheerful guy. Had a smile, ear to ear. He owned the bait shop, by the tracks, in Poseyville. Sad to learn of his death. Great guy, fun memories, lots of laughter. May it comfort his family to know, if he were here now, he would find some joke to crack. RIP Randy !!

“ I remember back a few years ago, I was in an abusive relationship. Had taken many beatings from the man I was married to. I wanted to get my belongings from the house while my husband at the time was out drinking... I called Randy and immediately he said get out of the house and I will be there just give me a little bit of time. Making a long story shorter.... We had made plans of where I would be so he could meet me. Well approximately 1 hour later Randy shows up with many other cars behind him (all coming from Indiana) Some I knew some, I didn't, but I didn't care. Randy told me "come on we are gonna go get your things !" By the time we got to my house my husband at the time had returned. I was sooo scared, but Randy and the 12 guys he had with him told the ex to sit down.... keep his mouth off me.. and don't attempt to come toward me. The guys all positioned themselves inside and outside of the house ! I owed him such a debt of gratitude for helping me and will never forget it. I later divorced this man and never had problems again. Thank you again Randy and friends... I will always remember this ! I love you forever and ever!

“ I can remember mostly going to the auctions in wadesville and he was always there with Kim and Carrie , he was a character for sure , but always had a smile and willing to help you out. He always talked about his grandkids , he will be missed.
