“ TO: Cousin -- Carol Julian (Mounts) Alan and niece Amy Ferris (Jeremy).

I'm so sorry to have read in the Posey County News where your brother passed away. You are probably wondering just how I'm connected to you, your mother Roberta (HOLDER) and father Manford "Mutt" Mounts. Your mother was the older sister to my father, Clearance Albert Moore of New Harmony and later in life dad lived in Gore, Oklahoma.

Our two kids, Kimberly (Moore) Blankenship (59 years old) and son, Gregg S. Moore to this very day still mention about the fishing worms that your Grandpa (my Uncle) Frank Holder and Aunt Viola raised and sold when they lived in Southwest sector New Harmony.

After I graduated from New Harmony High School in 1958, I joined the Army, Got married and didn't have an opportunity to visit our families after that. I remember Rick but like my other family members, I didn't get to see him in view that I remained on active duty in the Army over twenty years.

I use to receive mail from Barbara D. (Holder) Gerichs (sp).

Should ever do any genealogy on the Holders, etc., I have some and a few pictures I could duplicate, etc. I know that Barbara Dean has done some genealogy research also.

Major Larry Moore, Retired. U. S. Army. 1-865-694-7787. Knoxville, Tennessee.

Once again, I'm sorry to read about you losing your brother!
