“ Mr. Cox will certainly be missed in New Harmony by all of us. He and his sweet wife Nellie raised four wonderful children here, and all of their friends and classmates knew and loved these parents. Cherish all your sweet memories of your dad. Becoming an orphan is a major change in life, no matter what age you happen to be.

“ The Cox family has my condolences. I have many great memories of Robert Cox. Growing up running around with his son Jim, I enjoyed talking to Mr. Cox. He was always soft-spoken and enjoyed talking about he bees. Loved to hear him laugh.
