“ When I was a young boy we would go down to my Grandmother's house to stay and visit. Every morning early Buddy would come out to tell us the news of the day. Then he would start telling us stories and "tall tales". I remember him telling us the blackberries in the woods were so big: "you had to cut them in two, just to get them into the bucket". I used to follow him around sometimes just to see some of these stories first hand. I was only about 12 years old and he took me with him to run the traps early one cold December morning. We didn't get anything but the light snow and frosted trees sure were beautiful. Uncle Buddy sure will be missed. Rick Nikolich, Auburntown, TN

“ In recent years, I've good memories of sharing events of our younger years with Bud in our many phone call moments. Although we have been separated for many years in both time and distance, Bud had very clear, fond memories to share over the phone, many of which I was never aware or had long ago forgotten. He was very appreciative of the love and care shown him by his siblings.

Thanks to the unselfish kindness of his little Brother, Charles, his younger sister, Jacie, and his predeceased Sister, Joyce, other immediate family and his friends, Bud's final years were very blessed in so many ways.

My thoughts and prayers will be with Charles, Jacie, and all of Bud's immediate family members on Tuesday, August 20th. 🙏

God Bless.
