Tamara Sue Kimbrough, 67, of Princeton, Indiana, formerly of New Harmony, Indiana, passed into the arms of Jesus, Saturday, May 6, 2023, at Deaconess Gateway Hospital in Newburgh, Indiana surrounded by her loving husband and family.

Tami, as she preferred to be called, was born in 1956 in New Harmony, Indiana, to Ermil and Thelma (Davis) Aldrich. She graduated in 1974 from New Harmony High School, and went on to get her nursing degree from School of Health Occupation Nursing College in 1976. After a long career in nursing, Tami retired in March 2021 as a Certified Clinical Research Coordinator at Research Institute at Deaconess in Evansville, Indiana.

Tami married Mike Kimbrough of Princeton in May 2021. Tami loved her family and often had nieces visiting and "crashing" at her home, which she enjoyed greatly. She had an infectious laugh, a loving heart and a giving spirit, and was the kind of person who never met a stranger. Her hobbies included baking, cooking, gardening and crafting. Christmas was always her favorite time of year, and she would make numerous tins of candy to give to neighbors, friends and family.

Tami is survived by her husband; sister: Donna Aldrich Hutchison of Carmi, Illinois; stepsons: Joe Kimbrough (Jen) of Princeton, Indiana and Gabe Kimbrough (Alexis) of Lisbon, Iowa; brother-in-law: Denny Kimbrough, Princeton, Indiana; as well as her beloved nieces: Lea Ann Carroll of Largo, Florida, Carmen (Jim) Naas of Evansville, Indiana and Dawn (Shawn) Worman of New Harmony, Indiana.

Preceding her in death were her parents and sister: Velma Jean Fisher Hyatt.

She attended Life Tabernacle Church of God in Evansville, Indiana. Services will be held on 6 p.m., Monday, May 15, 2023 at the First Baptist Church, The E4 Church, 823 Tavern Street, New Harmony, Indiana 47631.
