“ Tom was a character. One fine day, Neale & I were talking about Tom. For some reason, I was sure that Tom did not wear glasses and told Neale this.
The next day I saw Tom sitting in our office without glasses. Then I was sure he did wear glasses. What a character he was.
Was Tom 1/4 Cherokee, like Cher?

“ Tom was not only a cousin, but when I lived in New Harmony, IN and went to the Christian Church there, he was my Elder. When he presided at the Communion table, he always prayed that for those who were Christians and were partaking of the Lord's Supper to repent and ask Jesus Christ to forgive their sins so that they would be right with God. In all of my long Christian life, only one other elder always prayed that prayer for those who were to take the Lord's Supper. I appreciated Tom's dedication to the Lord and to those Christians that he was a shepherd for as an Elder of Christ's Church in New Harmony, IN. I will miss his presence here on Earth, but I am so glad that he is now present with his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Peace of Christ be with the family. Love in Jesus' Name, Judy Donaldson
