“ Velma was a quiet presence whose impact was loud. By that I mean she was a kind and humble woman who did so much for everyone. She made the world a better place with Christian charity. Her church and home community were the recipient of her hard work and dedication. Her family should be very proud of her legacy.

“ JoBerta and Kristy,

So sorry for your loss. Growing up I loved spending the summers at Grandpa's Farm which always came with a week or two at Aunt Velma and Uncle Everett's house. Aunt Velma always put me to work, everything from helping out at the fairgrounds to plucking chickens. Lots of good memories, I will miss her.

“Velma was a close friend of my mother’s, Essie Williams. They were members of several organizations together — Johnson UMC, UMW, Homemakers, supporters of Everett’s and my dad’s Keck Gronerman’s Club, and they lived not far from one another. I would see Velma at church when I visited my parents, and I remember her as being so kind, helpful and intelligent. She was always actively involved in every organization to which she belonged. Mother, who died seven years ago this June, appreciated and loved Velma. Grace and peace to all of you as you grieve losing her.
